Property Restored to Pardoned Citizens.

MEXICAN NEWS

Another Lecture by Wendell Philips.

An Episode in Treasury Life LARGE SALE OF COTTON.

Heraid from Washington, 17th, says the formal restoration of property claimed by pardoned citizens of Vir-ginia is occupying a good share of the clerical labor of the Freedmen's Bu-reau. About 25 names are now repre-sented upon the lists of property hold-ers, who have been restored to their possessaions. Most of the landed es-tates transferred are located in the counties of Alexandria, Fairfax, Lou-den, St. Marys and Falls Church, and are within the aggregate about $500,000. The plantation of Southron, on Paw The plantation of Southron, on Paw tucket river, in Maryland, is included in the above list, together with the resi-dences of Mrs. Frances Smith and Mrs. Dangerfield, in the city of Alexandria, the former being worth $100,000 and the latter from $2.00 to 30,000 a piece. As the cold weather comes on, many persons from the North are coming with it to Washington for permission to
